

Swahili Classes

The Research Institute of Swahili studies of Eastern Africa a directorate of National Museums of Kenya now offers Swahili classes in Nairobi at the National Museums of Kenya Headquarters. Download Swahili Lesson Schedule

The Beginners' Course

The beginners' course comprises of basic knowledge of swahili. Thus, our students are able to have basic conversations and perform everyday task, such as shopping, bargaining, socializing, making travel arrangements and other basic survival skills.

The beginners' course is tailored for regular students attending 2 hours a day, Monday to Friday. The course starts every calendar month and is of 4 weeks duration. Lesson start every morning at 09:00am and ends at 11:00am in the morning.

The Intermediate Course

The intermediate course is building on the beginners' course and working on students' all-round language confidence. The aim of this is to enable students to write essays, translate simple documents, reading newspapers and novels.

The intermediate course is tailored for regular students attending 2 hours a day, Monday to Friday. The intermediate course starts every calendar month and is of 4 weeks duration. Lessons start every morning at 11:00am and ends at 1:00pm in the afternoon.

The Advanced Course

The advanced course teaches students to express difficult concepts in Swahili and emphasizes on literature, poetry and translation of complex documents.

The advanced course is tailored for regular students attending 2 hours a day, Monday to Friday. The advanced course starts every calendar month and is of 4 weeks duration. Lessons start every afternoon at 02:00pm and ends at 4:00pm in the afternoon.

Full Immersion "Crash Course"

Our full immersion "crash course" caters for students who wish to squeeze as many hours of tuition and knowledge absorption as possible within a limited time frame. The goal is for the student to be conversant in Swahili within 1 week. The full immersion "crash course" starts every Monday, and is of 1 week duration. There is more emphasis on conversation and communication, and less emphasis on grammar for our students choosing the full immersion "crash course". Lessons start every morning at 09:00am and ends at 1:00pm in the afternoon.

More lessons offered are:

- Private Lessons
- Semi- private Lessons
- Tailor made Programmes

Students gets free entry to the National Museums and the Snake park.

Registration is underway at the National Museums of Kenya.

For more information contact:

Munira Mohammed

Email: munira@museums.or.ke

Tel: +254722611533